Carlsdottir Canon (The Porta-Potty Song)

Thorholla doesn't drink much, except for once a year
When she goes to Pennsic War, she raises lots of cheer
Wine, liquor, and the rest, that's the time she likes 'em best
All washed down with quantities of beer!

Beer makes it's presence known, you can't buy it, it's on loan
And as they went to shower, Caitlin knew,
And Thorholla did agree, they needed....the facility
Unto the Porta-Potties they did go.

Now, Caitlin had a problem, 'cause she had too much gear
And so she said, "Thorholla? I really much do fear!
I have all of this stuff, with no place to put it here,
Tell me what to do, my dear Thorholla!"

(Spoken)

...and a slightly woozy voice from the next stall over, said:

There's....a....shelf in the porta potty, it stands upon the right
A shelf in the porta potty, you can't see it without light
My toothbrush and my comb, they have found a happy home!
There's a shelf in the porta-potty on the right!
